
studio/electronic gear for sale...

Posted by jbuonacc - 2005/08/09 04:53

figured i'd post this, maybe someone here can use something...

Mackie 1402vlz Pro w/ box, manual, etc. got it a few months ago from a guy who never used it. excellent condition - $280

Akai s612 w/ manual. their first rack sampler. full 12-bit grit, has sliders to control sample start and end points for some realtime craziness. excellent condition. - $100

Roland TR-505 w/ box, manual etc. bought it a few months ago from a local shop where it sat on the shelf unsold for almost 20 years. excellent condition. great for circuit-bending. - $100

Behringer Composer Pro w/ box, manual. lower-end compressor with side-chain inputs. excellent condition. - $65

Behringer Ultra-Dyne Pro w/ manual. multi-band digital compressor. not much out there like it. excellent condition. - $130

ART PowerStation rackmount 8-outlet power distributor with lights and meters. excellent condition. - $65

Roland MPU-105 w/ manual, power supply (might have the box as well). 1-in / 5-out MIDI thru selector with switches for each output. 1/2-rack size. excellent condition. - $40

PM or e-mail if interested, i can take pics of the items if needed. you can view my 100% ebay feedback (userID - jbuonacc) at:

they will end up there within the next couple weeks if they don't sell through ads. i try to give people from the message boards that i frequent a shot at them before having to bid for them on ebay.
