Long story and defiantly not worth revisiting on, E-U.

E-U Hosting, db, the background structure is and will soon rethought from the ground up. Till then, enjoy what you're working here.

Cheers

Bless you Bless You

As I was saying to Kirlian earlier, this place has become my social circle...

I felt very alone when it was down, not trying to sound pitiful yall have become my friends :)

I was worried something horrible had happened, and of course I thought it was my fault :)

ANYWAY, again Bless you so much for bringing back my dear EU forum

Lars

I never used to max out all the LFOs before, but now there's always something that could be slow-tweaked.
